

Brooklyn Historical Society to Hold Annual Meeting

Martins Creek Viaduct Scenic Overlook

The Annual Meeting of the Brooklyn Historical Society will be held on July 10, 2022, at 2 PM at the First Universalist Church of Brooklyn, Maple Street, Brooklyn Village, Susquehanna County. Ms. Sara Miller of Kent Ohio will be the featured presenter, speaking about the future of the Curtis and Margaret Stone property in Brooklyn Village. Elections for officer and trustee positions will be held, that will help lead the society for the next year. A visit to the completed scenic overlook on Zick Hill for viewing the Martins Creek Viaduct will be conducted at the end of the formal meeting, to include a dedication of the overlook site. Numerous historic publications will be available for purchase. Contact David Palmer at davesolopalmer@gmail.com or 570-498-6637 for more information. The July meeting promises to be an interesting and informative one. Bring a friend...a new member.
